Section 7 – Regulation FD

Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

Johnson Outdoors Inc. (the "Company") has been actively monitoring the coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak and its impact globally on the Company. The Company has been adhering to guidelines and mandates from governmental and health organizations in the territories that it has locations and production facilities, and has implemented various risk mitigation plans to reduce the risk of spreading the virus. To that end, the Company has encouraged working remotely where applicable, adopted social distancing where appropriate, implemented travel restrictions, and is taking actions to ensure that locations and facilities are cleaned and sanitized regularly. Further, as the virus continues to spread, and where appropriate, or required to comply with foreign, national, state or local governmental authority recommendations, guidelines, and/or mandates, the Company has, or may have to in the future, temporarily reduce or suspend work at certain of the Company's locations and production facilities. All of these actions may adversely impact the Company's operating results.

Given the fluid and quickly evolving situation, the Company is withdrawing any previous expectations it communicated regarding its financial performance for fiscal 2020.

The information in this Form 8-K, including under this Item 7.01, shall not be deemed "filed" for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, nor shall it be deemed incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, except as shall be expressly set forth by specific reference in such filing.

Safe Harbor Statement

Certain matters discussed in this filing are "forward-looking statements," intended to qualify for the safe harbors from liability established by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Statements other than statements of historical fact are considered forward-looking statements. These statements may be identified by the use of forward-looking words or phrases such as "anticipate," "believe," "confident," "could," "expect," "intend," "may," "planned," "potential," "should," "will," "would" or the negative of those terms or other words of similar meaning. Such forward-looking statements are subject to certain risks and uncertainties, which could cause actual results or outcomes to differ materially from those currently anticipated. Factors that could affect actual results or outcomes include the matters described under the caption "Risk Factors" in Item 1A of the Company's Form 10-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on December 6, 2019, and the following: changes in economic conditions, consumer confidence levels and discretionary spending patterns in key markets; uncertainties stemming from changes in U.S. trade policies, tariffs, and the reaction of other countries to such changes; the impact of global economic, political, market, health and social events or conditions (including the impact of the coronavirus); the Company's success in implementing its strategic plan, including its targeted sales growth platforms, innovation focus and its increasing digital presence; litigation costs related to actions of and disputes with third parties, including competitors; the Company's continued success in its working capital management and cost-structure reductions; the Company's success in integrating strategic acquisitions; the risk of future write-downs of goodwill or other long-lived assets; the ability of the Company's customers to meet payment obligations; the impact of actions of the Company's competitors with respect to product development or enhancement or the introduction of new products into the Company's markets; movements in foreign currencies, interest rates or commodity costs; fluctuations in the prices of raw materials or the availability of raw materials or components used by the Company; any disruptions in the Company's supply chain as a result of material fluctuations in the Company's order volumes and requirements for raw materials and other components necessary to manufacture and produce the Company's products; the success of the Company's suppliers and customers and the impact of any consolidation in the industries of the Company's suppliers and customers; the ability of the Company to deploy its capital successfully; unanticipated outcomes related to outsourcing certain manufacturing processes; unanticipated outcomes related to litigation matters; and adverse weather conditions. Shareholders, potential investors and other readers are urged to consider these factors in evaluating the forward-looking statements and are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such forward-looking statements. The forward-looking statements included herein are only made as of the date of this filing. The Company assumes no obligation, and disclaims any obligation, to update such forward-looking statements to reflect subsequent events or circumstances.
